Recognizing the immense responsibility bestowed upon me, I commit to the following principles:

1. Integrity: I pledge to conduct myself with honesty and sincerity in all my dealings, both public and private. I will not engage in any form of corruption, bribery, or unethical behavior that undermines the welfare of our nation and its citizens. I pledge to uphold the standards of behavior and conduct required of public officials and employees of government as prescribed in the National Code of Conduct.
2. Transparency: I will ensure that my actions as a government official are open and transparent to the public. I will provide access to information, resources, and decision-making processes to foster trust and accountability.
3. Accountability: I accept responsibility for my actions and decisions while in office. I will adhere to the laws, regulations, and ethical standards governing my role, and I will be answerable to the people of Liberia for my stewardship of public resources and responsibilities.
4. Fairness and Equity: I pledge to treat all individuals with fairness, dignity, and respect, regardless of their background, status, or affiliations. I will strive to promote equity and inclusivity in all policies and actions to ensure the well-being of every Liberian citizen. I will strive to avoid conflicts of interest and maintain confidentiality.
5. Service to the Nation: I recognize that my primary duty is to serve the best interests of Liberia and its people. I will prioritize the needs of the nation above personal gain or political expediency, working tirelessly to promote the prosperity, security, and welfare of all Liberians.
6. Continuous Improvement: I commit to ongoing self-reflection, learning, and improvement in my role as a government official. I will seek feedback, engage in constructive dialogue, and strive to enhance my knowledge, skills, and effectiveness in serving the public good.

By adhering to these principles, I pledge to uphold the integrity of Liberia's government and contribute to the advancement of our nation's democratic ideals, socio-economic development, and collective prosperity.
